

Family Orders | Quantum Cloud

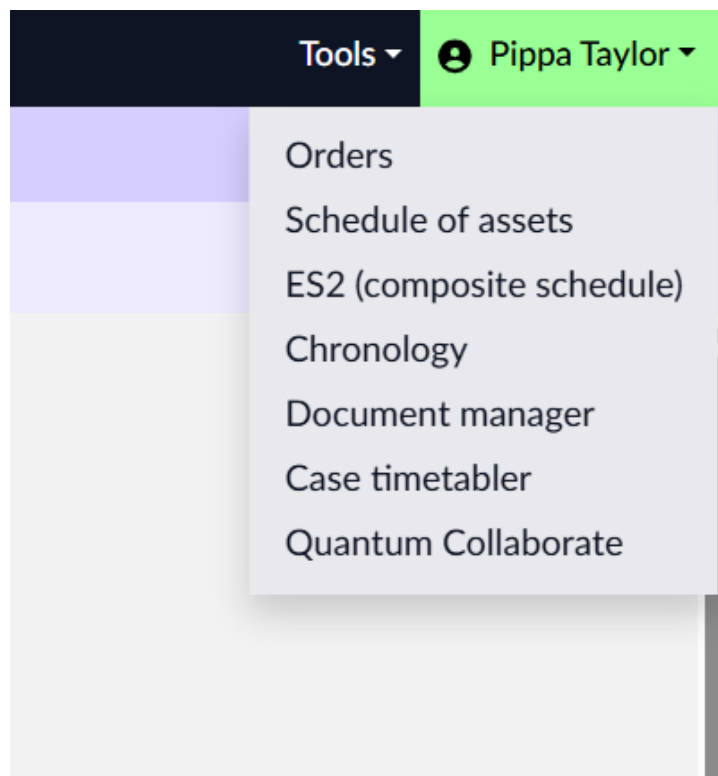

Accessing the Orders

Within Quantum Cloud you can draft your orders using the Standard Family Court Orders templates which merges the data already entered in your case.

Data is merged from the case information, so please be sure to fill out the 'Case Information' section prior to creating your order.

The orders are located in the 'Tools' section, found in the top right-hand side of your screen next to your name.

Click the 'Tools' dropdown and select 'Orders'.

Creating an Order

Select the 'Type of order' ((2) Financial Remedy Final Orders), followed by the order itself (Order 2.1 – Financial Remedy Order), and finally the Court (if one or more has been entered in Case information).

If a case number has been entered in the 'Case information' for the selected court, it will be added automatically for you.

Comment by HHJ Hess:
This order is intended to be suitable in all financial remedy cases where provision is to be made as between two adults.

It is intended to be comprehensive, providing a draft clause for any provision a court might conceivably wish to make in a final order. As such, it is inevitably voluminous.

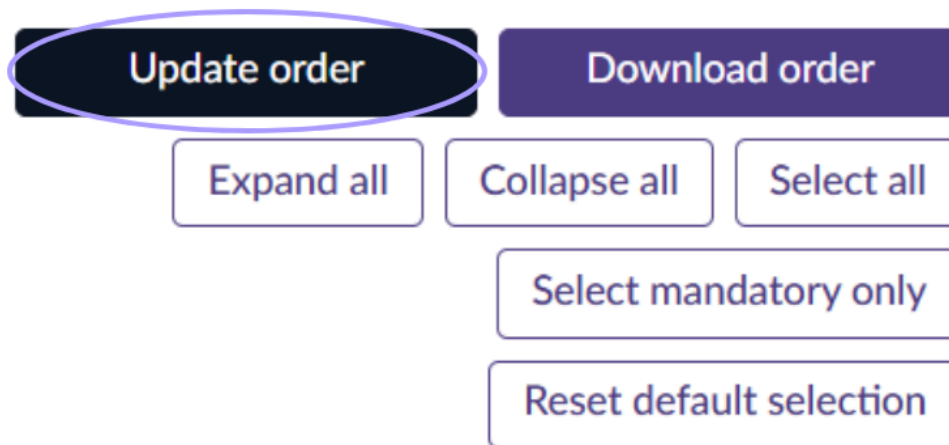

The template order represents a menu of clauses from which the parties and the court will want to select only those relevant to the facts of the case in question.

Completing your Order

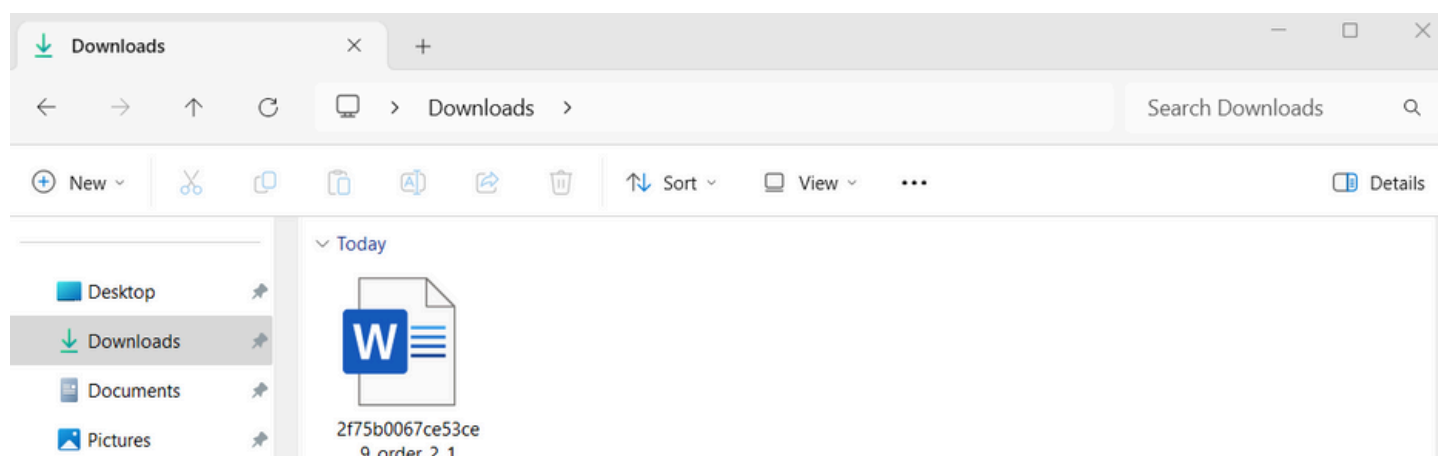

Once you are happy with your paragraph selections, please click 'Update Order'. This will update the preview of the order to reflect any changes you have made. You must do this in order to see your changes.

Once your selections have been updated, click on 'Download order' and your draft order will be sent to your downloads folder as a Word document where you can work on your order as required.

The case name will be anonymised as a series of numbers and letters, the document name can be changed in your personal downloads folder if necessary.

Depending upon your version of Microsoft Word and your settings, you may need to enable the editing of the document before you start. You will be alerted to this by a warning message at the top of Microsoft Word.

Quantum Cloud will merge your case data with the selected order. It will include all mandatory text and exclude the paragraphs that are unchecked.

This newly created document will contain text in red, blue, green and black.

The text in blue is the data which Quantum Cloud has merged automatically from your case data.

The text in red shows the paragraphs or clauses which will need your attention as you adapt the order for each specific case.

The green are the drafting notes from the official order.
